

TMTA DIGITAL KEYBOARD ORCHESTRA READING SESSION

Chair is listed at the back of this book on the Board of Directors' page. Fees and deadlines are also at the back of this book.

Description: The Digital Keyboard Orchestra Reading Session is a noncompetitive instruction and participation activity that features group ensemble sight reading of music written for Keyboard Orchestra settings.

Date, Time and Location: Two reading sessions will be held for each of three different levels: elementary, intermediate and advanced. Students will be assigned a time based on their skill level and other convention commitments. Participants may attend more than one session.

Non-refundable Fee: Non-refundable fees are listed at the back of this book.

- Registered teachers may participate free of charge.
- Checks should be made payable to TMTA and sent to the TMTA Office. Repertoire requirements:

Student participants are expected to learn an instrumental part of one or more ensembles and be able to play with an ensemble. Following registration, students will be mailed the music.

During the session students will rehearse the selection(s) and spend the remainder of the time sight reading other ensembles.

How to Enter: Follow instructions on the registration form available on the TMTA.org website. Registration forms must be sent by the deadline.
